HB 2722 administrative law judge decisions; review

Relating to judicial review of administrative decisions, removes the authorization of a state agency, board or commission to review the decision of an administrative law judge and accept, reject or modify it, as well as submit a final administrative decision. A party may appeal the written decision of the administrative law judge, instead of a final administrative decision of the agency head. The court is required to affirm the written decision of the administrative law judge unless the court finds by clear and convincing evidence that the written decision is erroneous. Previously, the court was required to affirm the agency action unless the court concluded that the action was contrary to law, not supported by substantial evidence or was arbitrary and capricious.
