HB 2562 tax credit; affordable housing.

Establishes an affordable housing tax credit (tax credit) against insurance premium taxes and income taxes. Requires the Arizona Department of Housing (ADOH) to issue $8,000,000 in tax credits in any calendar year. Repeals added statutes related to the tax credit program on January 1, 2029.

Fiscal Note:

It is estimated that HB 2562 will reduce General Fund revenues by $(8.0) million in FY 2024. This reduction reflects use of the first full year of credits which are allocated in tax year (TY) 2022 and claimed in TY 2023. The revenue loss would gradually increase to an annual impact of $(56.0) million in TY 2030, which reflects the use of 7 installments of credits allocated from TY 2022 through TY 2028.

Adopted House Floor Amendment

Lowers the delayed repeal date from December 31, 2028 to December 31, 2027.

HB 2772 fantasy sports betting; event wagering.

Makes numerous changes to statutes related to gaming including, after the conditions for enactment of this legislation are met, authorizing the Arizona State Lottery Commission to establish and operate a single "electronic keno game" and a single "mobile draw game" on a centralized computer system controlled by the lottery that allows a player to place wagers, view the outcome of a game and receive winnings over the internet, including on personal electronic devices. The bill further specifies that an electronic keno game may be operated only within an "authorized keno location," defined as a physical facility with a specified gaming license that is a fraternal organization, veterans' organization, racetrack enclosure, or wagering facility where pari-mutuel wagering is conducted.

Adopted Committee Amendment

- Revises the manner in which a fantasy sports contest operator and an event wagering facility operator identifies a person as having an obligation owed by a state agency and requires the operators to transfer amounts withheld for such obligations to ADG.
- Includes certain Indian tribes to the definition of event wagering operator.
- Specifies an owner, operator, promoter or Indian tribe that qualifies for an event wagering operator license and appoints a designee to be licensed is not responsible for the conduct of its designee.
- Extends the time from 30 days to 60 days in which ADG has to issue licenses relating to event wagering.
- Makes clarifying changes

Adopted House Floor Amendment

(Substitute amendment to the Commerce Committee Amendment to HB2772)

- Includes the Commerce Committee amendment, with revisions:
 - Replaces the Arizona Supreme Court with the Administrative Office of the Courts as an entity who identifies a person as owing an obligation.
 - Revises the manner in which the Department of Gaming sets the fee for the privilege of operating fantasy sports contests and operating event wagering by requiring the Department to consider the highest percentage of revenue share that an Indian tribe pays to this state pursuant to a gaming compact.
- Modifies the definition of event wagering operator.
- Instructs the Department of Gaming to provide an event wagering facility operator information of persons with outstanding obligations.
- Makes further clarifying changes

HB 2805 unemployment insurance; benefits; tax base

Increases the taxable wage base, unemployment weekly benefit amount and income disregard cap beginning January 1, 2022 as follows:

- Taxable wage base from in excess of $7,000 to in excess of $8,000 beginning January 1, 2022.
- Unemployment weekly benefit amount from $240 to $300 beginning January 1, 2022.
- Income disregard amount from $30 to $160.

Fiscal Note

JLBC estimates that the bill would increase UI Trust Fund revenues by $77.9 million in calendar year (CY) 2022 and comparable amounts in CY 2023 and CY 2024. It is also estimated that the bill would increase UI benefit expenditures by $65.5 million in CY 2022, $51.0 million in CY 2023, and $36.4 million in CY 2024. The resulting net increase in the cash balance of the UI Trust Fund balance relative to current law would be $12.4 million in CY 2022, $27.7 million in CY 2023, and $43.1 million in CY 2024

HB 2759 rulemaking; petitions; GRRC

Requires the Governor's Regulatory Review Council (GRRC) to review the practice, policy, rule, or requirement on receipt of a petition to review an existing agency practice, substantive policy statement, final rule, or regulatory licensing requirement that the petitioner alleges violates state law, is not authorized by statute, is unduly burdensome or is not demonstrated to be necessary to fulfill a public health, safety or welfare concern.

Adopted Committee Amendment

Makes technical and clarifying changes.

NOTE: Currently, GRRC is required to review the petition only if the practice, policy, rule or requirement applied to a profession for which the average wage in that profession in Arizona does not exceed 200 percent of the federal poverty guidelines for a family of four.
