I understand the Arizona State Veterans' Cemetery is accepting all the cremated remains of _____ for interment.
Decedent's Full Name

I further understand that if there were remains divided before placement none of the retained/removed cremains will be added later to the gravesite or original container being interred at this state cemetery.

By placing a portion of the above named decedent's cremated remains in this state veterans' cemetery, I understand that any remaining cremated remains are not eligible for interment or memorialization in any other VA National Cemetery or state cemetery.

In addition, I understand that no matter the future disposition of the remaining cremated remains, i.e., interment in a private cemetery or scattering, my loved one is not authorized to receive an additional Government-furnished headstone, marker or niche cover.
